

Spend Sunday Out of Town

A Special Train via M., K. & T. Ry. leaves Union Station 9:00 p. m.

July 15th

Returning Arrives St. Louis July 17th at 5:00 a. m.

ROUND TRIP RATES
 Sedalia . . . $2.50
 Booneville . . . $2.25
 Columbia . . . $2.00
 Mokane . . . $1.50
 Marthasville . $1.25
 Augusta . . . $1.00
 And many intermediate points at proportionate rates.

A FINE OUTING

Tickets at 520 Olive St. and Union Station.

HICKS CAPUDINE
 CURES HEADACHES
 COLDS, INDIGESTION
 IT'S LIQUID!
 SUCCEEDS THE NERVE
 TONIC, GEL, 25c
 At Drug Stores

TO REFIT THEATERS FOR NEW SEASON

Contracts Will Be Let to Renovate Columbia and Grand Opera House—To Safe-guard Patrons.

At a cost of $20,000 the Columbia Theater and Grand Opera House are to be refurnished and redecorated in preparation for their opening in September.

The work is being done in addition to the repairs and alterations to the Grand Opera House, which is being done by the same firm, Messrs. J. H. Middleton, of Chicago, one of the companies which controls the theaters, is in St. Louis to let the contracts. He announced his intentions to The Republic last night at the Jefferson Hotel, where he was in conference with Frank Tate of St. Louis, another member of the corporation.

Mr. Middleton said that his plans contemplate the refitting of the Grand Opera House and Columbia with new chairs and boxes, arranged more conveniently than at present, and many artistic frescoes for the decoration of walls and ceilings. The stages of both houses will be rearranged and equipped with new sets. Drop curtains and draperies of all kinds and rich materials will be substituted for those now in the theaters.

Particular attention, Mr. Middleton said, will be devoted to the refitting of the Grand Opera House, which is being done by the same firm, Messrs. J. H. Middleton, of Chicago, one of the companies which controls the theaters, is in St. Louis to let the contracts. He announced his intentions to The Republic last night at the Jefferson Hotel, where he was in conference with Frank Tate of St. Louis, another member of the corporation.

Mr. Middleton announced also that the improvements under consideration will extend to the attractions which will appear next season in addition to the new plays and acts provided by the Keith-Curtis agency, other Eastern managers will be drawn on for bills.

VERNON WILL NOT RETIRE FROM FARMINGTON ASYLUM.

Report That Board Will Ask His Resignation on Error—Will Be Re-Elected at Next Meeting.

Farmington, Mo., July 12.—In this morning's issue of the Globe-Democrat the account of the meeting of the Board of Managers of Hospital No. 1 contained an error, in that it stated that Doctor P. S. Vernon would be retired at the next meeting of the board.

Members of the board stated today that there was no truth in the report and that Doctor Vernon would be re-elected as assistant superintendent.

Re-election announcement was made that it was the intention of the board to re-elect Doctor Vernon for a term of two years, at the last meeting, but the matter was unfortunately overlooked, and it will be taken up at the next meeting.

It is said that Doctor Vernon and Joseph J. Hoeser will turn the office over to the supervisor John H. Higley of Farmington, at once, and that the matter will be amicably adjusted.

WALKED TO HOSPITAL ALONE; DIED ELEVEN HOURS LATER.

Fred Schmidt Declared He Was Feeling Well After Arrival, but Later Relapsed.

Fred Schmidt, 65 years old, living at No. 204 South Second street, walked to the City Hospital yesterday and last night died of heart disease.

Schmidt suffered from heart pains yesterday and went to the hospital unaccompanied to receive medical attention. He undressed himself, took his own bath, refusing assistance when it was proffered, and said he was "feeling fine." He was then sent to a ward for treatment.

Schmidt insisted upon being permitted to walk upstairs, but the physician would not allow him to do so. They placed Schmidt on a stretcher and he was conveyed to a cot on the third floor, where medical attention was given immediately.

Later in the day Schmidt grew worse and he died at 3:30 last night. Schmidt arrived at the hospital at 2:30 a. m.

Pulmonary Hemorrhage Cause Death.

Frank Hausman, 23 years old, living at No. 67 East 11th street, died at the City Hospital last night. He was entered as a patient at the hospital Tuesday afternoon. Young Hausman was a sufferer from a severe pulmonary hemorrhage.

Chief Dever's Superintendent. REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Dever, Mo., July 12.—Professor G. R. Kirk of the College Normal was elected superintendent of the Dever schools by the Board of Education today.

PURSUES FRIEND'S SAYER; FATAL FIGHT OVER CIGARETTE

For Seventeen Blocks, Afoot and Aboard Cars, Fred Macy Chases T. John Frazier, Who Shot and Killed Raymond V. Stough at Papin Street Boarding-House—Fugitive, Caught Once, Is Aided to Escape, It Is Alleged, Through Interference of Saloon-keeper.

ASSAILANT'S PROTECTOR MAY BE HELD AS AN ACCESSORY.

T. JOHN FRAZIER, The slayer.

For seventeen blocks, afoot and aboard cars, T. John Frazier, a painter, was pursued by Fred Macy, companion of Raymond V. Stough, whom Frazier had shot and instantly killed after a quarrel over a cigarette at their boarding-house, No. 150 Papin street, about 6 o'clock last evening. Though once captured, Frazier managed to escape through the interference of a friend, and last night was still at large.

The shooting took place at the boarding-house conducted by Emil Sabaten, and was the outcome of what Stough and several of his fellow-boarders thought Frazier intended as a practical joke.

According to Sabaten's statement to the police, Frazier was eating his supper when James Rodgers, another boarder, walked through the dining-room, smoking a cigarette. Frazier remarked that the smell of the cigarette sickened him. At the same time Stough was making a cigarette and replied that the odor of Frazier's clothes disgusted him.

At this juncture, it is said, Stough left the room, going to a porch on the east side of the house. Rodgers walked to the street. Then Frazier, Sabaten declares, went to his room, adjoining the dining-room, and took a revolver from his trunk. Going to the porch where Stough sat, it is stated that Frazier demanded to know whether Stough wanted trouble.

QUARREL OVER CIGARETTE. Stough, it is said, believing that Frazier was joking, answered that he was ready for a fight. Frazier suggested that they go to the lawn. Stough retorted that the porch was a good place for the settlement of their difference.

Growing angrier, it is said, Frazier reached for his revolver. As he did so, it is said by Macy and Clifford Michaels, who were witnesses, Stough struck Frazier in the face. Frazier fell against the wall, but recovered his balance and aimed the revolver at Stough's breast. He fired and the bullet pierced Stough's heart.

After the shooting Frazier returned the weapon to his pocket and ran to the street. Fred Macy, for several years a friend and companion of Stough's, followed him.

RAYMOND V. STOUGH, Who was killed.

Stough, who ran west to Eighteenth street and then to the middle of the block north of Grand street, where he encountered an unidentified man, who, having heard Macy's cries, placed a revolver against Frazier's breast and forced him to halt.

Macy grabbed Frazier and with the assistance of Sabaten, who had reached the scene, started to lead him back to the house.

John Stephens, who conducts a grocery and saloon at the southeast corner of Eighteenth and Grand streets, forced Sabaten and Macy to liberate Frazier, they allege.

CAUGHT, BUT ESCAPES. Stephens then escorted Frazier through the saloon and through a rear door, it is charged. Frazier's revolver later was found hidden between two barrels in the saloon.

Macy stood near the saloon, and when he saw Frazier emerge from the alley again tried to pursue him. Frazier ran south on Eighteenth street and west on Chestnut to Mississippi avenue, where he boarded a car. Macy called to passengers on the car to detain Frazier, but he leaped to the ground as Hickory street was reached. He then ran north to Thirtieth and west to Jefferson avenue, where he boarded another car.

All the while Macy was close at his heels. As the car passed Chouteau avenue, southbound, Macy and Special Officer Williams of the Humane society, who had joined the chase, requested the motorman to hold his car until the arrival of a policeman.

He refused, and Macy was carried away on the car.

Frazier boarded at Sabaten's place for more than a month and was regarded as one of Stough's friends. Stough had been in the house for several months.

NO TRACE OF RELATIVES. The police last night were unable to find any trace of Stough's relatives. He was 23 years old and a bricklayer. He came to St. Louis from Concord, N. C. A search of his room failed to disclose any letters or papers from which the address of his parents could be obtained. The body was removed to the morgue.

Frazier is 40 years old, of light complexion, and weighs about 140 pounds. He wore a suit of light clothes and a white Fedora hat.

After the shooting Sergeant Driscol arrested Charles Griffin, Thomas H. Kennedy, Clifford Michaels and Fred Macy, who are held as witnesses at the coroner's inquest.

John Stephens, who is accused of aiding Frazier to escape, will be held as accessory after the fact, the police say.

TWO OUTLAWS WHO KILLED DETECTIVE ARE SHOT DOWN

One of Highwaymen Dies Instantly and Other Is Mortally Wounded by Fire From Possé—Merchant and Woman Wounded in Battle With Bandits at Cedarvale, Kas.—Robbers Held Up Six Traveling Men at Winfield on Sunday Night and Were Located by C. S. Calhoun of Kansas City, the Dead Officer, Who Was Employee of Railway.

FUSILLADE ON MAIN STREET OF TOWN FOLLOWS CHASE.

Winfield, Kas., July 12.—C. S. Calhoun of Kansas City, an Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway detective, was shot at Cedarvale early today by two outlaws, who were shot down later by a posse of citizens at Hewins, seven miles from Cedarvale, close to the Oklahoma State line.

One of the outlaws, Ed Madigan, of Ponca City, Ok., was killed instantly by the posse. The other, William Chaburn, of this city, was fatally wounded.

The outlaws exchanged shots with the posse. During the exchange J. M. Pope, a merchant, was shot through the foot and a woman named Malone was struck in the leg by a stray bullet.

HELD UP SIX DRUMMERS. Madigan and Chaburn held up and robbed six traveling men at the Bretton Hotel at Winfield on Sunday night, last, and escaped.

At Cedarvale last night Detective Calhoun encountered both of the outlaws on the street. Not being armed, he called to the outlaws. Calhoun secured the City Marshal and one of the robbed traveling men and all three started in search of the two men.

Early today they drove by the men in a side street. The traveling man identified them. Calhoun and the City Marshal and one of the robbed traveling men and all three started in search of the two men.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Winfield, Kas., July 12.—C. S. Calhoun of Kansas City, an Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway detective, was shot at Cedarvale early today by two outlaws, who were shot down later by a posse of citizens at Hewins, seven miles from Cedarvale, close to the Oklahoma State line.

One of the outlaws, Ed Madigan, of Ponca City, Ok., was killed instantly by the posse. The other, William Chaburn, of this city, was fatally wounded.

The outlaws exchanged shots with the posse. During the exchange J. M. Pope, a merchant, was shot through the foot and a woman named Malone was struck in the leg by a stray bullet.

HELD UP SIX DRUMMERS. Madigan and Chaburn held up and robbed six traveling men at the Bretton Hotel at Winfield on Sunday night, last, and escaped.

At Cedarvale last night Detective Calhoun encountered both of the outlaws on the street. Not being armed, he called to the outlaws. Calhoun secured the City Marshal and one of the robbed traveling men and all three started in search of the two men.

Early today they drove by the men in a side street. The traveling man identified them. Calhoun and the City Marshal and one of the robbed traveling men and all three started in search of the two men.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

Calhoun was shot through the heart and the outlaws made their escape temporarily.

FAILED TO RETURN FIRE. The Marshal and the traveling man, taken by surprise, were unable to fire a single shot in return.

Calhoun's body was taken to an undertaker's room and the town aroused. The outlaws stole two horses and started for Hewins. While a posse was gathering at Cedarvale, word was given about to Cedarvale, where the Deputy Sheriff quickly gathered a score of armed men about him.

Within two hours the outlaws rode up to a hardware store at Hewins, secured a rifle and a revolver and started out of town on a gallop.

Just as Madigan and Chaburn were leaving the main streets the posse opened fire from the protection of a store. The robbers returned the fire and a lively fusillade ensued.

OUTLAWS SHOT DOWN. Finally Madigan fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Another bullet soon brought Chaburn to the ground, shot through the bowels.

Madigan's body was taken to Cedarvale, and Chaburn was placed in the hospital, where it is said he cannot live. Madigan and Chaburn were each under 30 years of age. Chaburn had served time in the Kansas Penitentiary for burglary. Nothing is known of Madigan.

ROOSEVELT SPEAKS WORDS OF PRAISE FOR DOCTORS

President Addressing Long Island Society Discusses the Intimate Double Relations Physicians Bear to the Persons of Their Communities—Says Work of Digging the Panama Canal Is to Be Made Possible by the Aid of Medical Science—Declares the Project Will Be an Absolute Success.

CLOSES WITH HIGH PRAISE OF GENERAL LEONARD WOOD.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 12.—President Roosevelt delivered a notable address this afternoon before the Associated Physicians of Long Island. He discussed, in the course of his speech, the relations physicians sustain with the people of the communities in which they reside, and the work to be done by the medical experts in connection with the construction of the Panama Canal, declaring that, despite all difficulties on the isthmus and here in the United States, the canal would be a success.

He referred to achievements of the sanitary engineers, who cleanse the cities of Cuba for the first time in 400 years, and closed by paying a tribute to the services of General Leonard Wood, whose cause as a military officer, he said, was clouded by some critics because he once had been a doctor.

A majority of the 80 physicians in attendance reached Oyster Bay on a special train at 2 o'clock. The session of the association was presided over by Doctor William B. Savage of East Islip, the president.

Attired in a suit of rough linen and wearing a broad-brimmed Panama hat, the President arrived at Oyster Bay High School, where the meeting was held, at 2:15 p. m. As he alighted from his carriage he was greeted by Doctor H. Zeckman, Delator of Brooklyn, and Doctor Fowler of Oyster Bay, members of the entertainment committee.

He was escorted by them to the assembly hall, where he was accorded a cordial reception by the physicians, all standing in a room that had been decorated for the occasion.

At the conclusion of the President's address, and at Mr. Roosevelt's own suggestion, an informal reception was held, each member of the association being presented to the President. After the President had retired from the hall, the association unanimously elected him and General Leonard Wood honorary members of the society.

PRESIDENT PRAISES DOCTORS. The President's address follows: My friends, members of the association, I need not say that I am very glad to be here, and I am very glad to see you. I am very glad to see you, and I am very glad to see you.

What is being done in Panama is but a sample of the things that this country has done, and is doing, and will do. It is a sample of the things that this country has done, and is doing, and will do.

And the man who, above all others, will be responsible for doing that work as well, was a member of your profession, who, when the call came, came to himself, and went to the front, and did his duty, and died for his country.

And the man who, above all others, will be responsible for doing that work as well, was a member of your profession, who, when the call came, came to himself, and went to the front, and did his duty, and died for his country.

And the man who, above all others, will be responsible for doing that work as well, was a member of your profession, who, when the call